HÔTEL BACHAUMONT

in SENTIER (2)

This well-appointed boutique hotel, located on a cobbled street in the buzziest part of the second arrondissement, is a welcome addition to the Paris hotel scene. The natty graphic decor, in cool shades of blue, green, and gray, is the signature of of-the-moment local designer Dorothée Meilichzon, whose quirky touch brings character and life to the rooms. Downstairs, the lively crew behind such popular haunts as the Experimental Cocktail Club and the Beef Club man the low-lit bar and the spacious, double-salon restaurant that serves up French bistro fare with a modern twist.
